Complaint for Filing False Affidavit of Service With
The Court, and Motion to Dismiss Plaintiff's Entry of Default Against Defendant John Acord

TO THE HONORABLE JEFF BOHM, UNITED STATE BANKRUPTCY JUDGE

COMES NOW, John Acord, Defendant, and files this Complaint against Margaret McClure, Attorney for Plaintiff Young Again Products, Inc..

On April 23, 2007, it came to the attention of this Defendant that Margaret McClure, attorney for the Plaintiff, had lodged with the Clerk of the United States Court for the Southern District of Texas, a false document titled "Certificate of Service," wherein Ms. McClure declared that proper service was made on the Defendant. This declaration was made on February 1, 2007, under penalty of perjury, by Margaret McClure knowing that such declaration was false and misleading and untrue. The perjured document is attached hereto as "Exhibit 1." A second document was filed against another defendant in this case, Marcella Ortega, and is attached hereto as "Exhibit 2."

Ms McClure, Plaintiff's Attorney, knew at the time of filing of the alleged "certificate of service" that this process was never delivered by the United State Post Office to the Defendant, John Acord, and had been returned to her office marked as "unclaimed." Please see Exhibit 3, attached hereto, which was downloaded from the United States Postal Service's website on April 27, 2006. This record corresponds with the certified mail registration number attached to the false "certificate or service" attached hereto as Exhibit 1. Exhibit 4 is the same United States Postal Service tracking information for Defendant Marcella Ortega.

Moreover, between February 18, 2007 and February 26, 2007 Defendants John Acord and Marcella Ortega were in the Netherlands, the United Kingdom, and the Republic of Ireland visiting distributors and vendors and could not have been properly served with the summons in this action. See Exhibit 5 confirming completed travel by Defendants during this period.

This Court is fully aware that the filing of false and misleading and perjured documents by members of the bar, especially those who are certified in bankruptcy law and regularly practice before the Court, severely hampers the Court's ability to serve the needs of justice in the Houston community and the Defendant requests that the harshest sanctions available to this Court be imposed against Ms. McClure, and suggests the following:

1. Imposition of an fine appropriate to discourage the filing of false and misleading affidavits of service.
2. The award of all costs incurred in the filing;
3. The dismissal with prejudice of Adversary No. 07-3019
4. That Ms. McClure be found in Contempt of this Court;
5. That Ms. McClure be bared from acting as local counsel in Bankruptcy Case No. 06-35903 and Adversary Proceeding 07-3019

And, such other remedies as this Court may choose to impose to insure the fair administration of justice and the compliance of those who practice before it with the laws and procedures regarding the filing of knowing false documents.

A Hearing for this Complaint is requested by this Defendant at the earliest possible time before this Court and that Ms.. McClure be required to present herself at the hearing.

Opposition to Plaintiff's Motion For Entry of Default Judgment
Against Defendant John Acord

TO THE HONORABLE JEFF BOHM, UNITED STATES BANKRUPTCY JUDGE

Defendant, John Acord, incorporates all paragraphs of the forgoing Complaint for Filing of A False Affidavit, and further avers:

1. Immediately upon learning from Randall Rios, Esq., attorney for the Trustee, Ben Floyd, that Plaintiff intended to file a Motion for Entry of Default Against Defendant, John Acord attempted to contact his counsel of record Patrick Hoskins, to inquire about the proper course of action to prevent entry of a default.
2. Unable to contact Mr. Hoskins, Defendant prepared in Pro Se the Answer attached hereto as Exhibit 6, titled "Answer." A copy of the Adversary Complaint was emailed by Mr. Rios to this Defendant to aid

Opposition to Plaintiff's Motion For Entry of Default Judgment
Against Defendant John Acord

TO THE HONORABLE JEFF BOHM, UNITED STATES BANKRUPTCY JUDGE

Defendant, John Acord, incorporates all paragraphs of the forgoing

Complaint for Filing of A False Affidavit, and further avers:

1. Immediately upon learning from Randall Rios, Esq., attorney for the Trustee, Ben Floyd, that Plaintiff intended to file a Motion for Entry of Default Against Defendant, John Acord attempted to contact his counsel of record Patrick Hoskins, to inquire about the proper course of action to prevent entry of a default.
2. Unable to contact Mr. Hoskins, Defendant prepared in Pro Se the Answer attached hereto as Exhibit 6, titled "Answer." A copy of the Adversary Complaint was emailed by Mr. Rios to this Defendant to aid him in the preparation of the “Answer.”

3. Defendant filed his “Answer,” by personal delivery, with the Clerk of the Court on Monday, April 23, 2007. Exhibit 6 shows the Clerk’s file stamp.

4. Defendant never received a copy of the Summons and Certificate of Service attached to the Plaintiff’s Motion for Entry of Default

Judgment. Plaintiff’s Exhibit Plainly shows that Adversary Complaint was returned without delivery to the Defendant.

5. Defendant has made 7 phone calls to his attorney of record, Mr.

Patrick Hoskins, and never received a return call, so he cannot state

With certainty whether Plaintiff ever served a copy of the Summons upon Defendant’s personal attorney of record.

8. Plaintiff’s attorney, Ms. McClure cannot pretend she did not know on February 1, the date she purportedly mailed copies of the Adversary

Complaint and Summons to Defendant, that Defendants John Acord and Marcella Ortega were represented by attorney, Patrick Hoskins, yet failed to mail or otherwise inform Mr.Hoskins that a summons in this action had been issued and that a reply was required.

9. On February 9, 2007, Defendant, John Acord. Defendant’s attorney

Patrick Hoskins, and Plaintiff’s attorneys appeared in this Court regarding a contempt citation sought by the Plaintiff against the Defendant. This Court denied the Plaintiff’s contempt motion. There should have been no confusion on the part of the Plaintiff that Defendant was personally represented by counsel.

10. To date, Defendant is not aware that Mr. Hoskins has withdrawn as counsel for the Defendant.

11. .To the best of Defendant's knowledge and belief Plaintiff failed to serve a Summons on Mr. Hoskins

12. On or about February 1, 2007, Defendant met with then current bankruptcy counsel Barbara Rogers and her law partner David Anderson and briefly reviewed the Adversary Complaint. At that time, no summons had been issued or received by Mrs. Rogers law firm.

13. Defendant was advised by Mr. Anderson who had reviewed the Adversary Complaint and had concluded the claims asserted in the complaint constitute property of the estate , which has the exclusive standing to pursue. He also advised the Defendant that his office had not received a summons and would wait until a summons had been received to fashion an answer should he be retained as counsel in this Adversary proceeding. In April 25, 2007, Defendant John Acord spoke with Mr. Anderson who advised him that Anderson's office had never received a copy of the summons in this case.

14. Since the hearing on February 9, 2007, there have been three (3) additional hearings in this Court attended by the Defendant and also attended by Mrs. McClure who could have caused proper Summons to be served or at least notified the Defendant of a Summons in this case.

.McClure failed to do so at each hearing.

15. On the 24th of April, the Court Appointed Trustee filed a motion to dismiss the adversary proceeding or in the alternative to abate adversary proceeding. This Complaint is based that any claims asserted by Young Again Products, Inc in its adversary proceeding are property of the Bankruptcy estate of SupplementSpot, LLC under section 541 of the Bankruptcy Code which the Trustee has exclusive standing to pursue on behalf of the estate and its creditors.

16. The Plaintiff alleges it has spent some $154,000 in its harassment of the Defendants since the Debtor, SUPPLEMENTSPOT, LLC, entered Chapter 11. This enormous sum illiterates the extent of the Plaintiff's effort to interfere and obstruct the proper reorganization of SUPPLEMENTSPOT, LLC and to force it into Chapter 7 liquidation. Many of the charges shown on the Plaintiff's accompanying exhibits show a flagrant violation of the Consent Injunction entered into between the Defendant and SUPPLEMENTSPOT, LLC on May 24, 2004 in the United States District Court for the Southern District of Maryland whereby all agreed not to interfere in the operation of their respective businesses. While many of the entries are redacted there are a few that show the Plaintiff has used its legal resources to obtain and catalogue SUPPMENTSPOT, LLC customers, affiliate sand agents. This information has been used to intimidate, harass, threaten, and otherwise interfere in the business of SUPPLEMENTSPOT

LLC, all in violation of the Consent Injunction, attached hereto as Exhibit 7, with special reference made to the specific acts PERMANENTLY enjoined and RESTRAINED on page 3 of this Consent Injunction.

17. Exhibits 8 through 10 are examples of the Plaintiff's flagrant and brazen and willful violations of the Consent Injunction. Defendants have 25 additional examples of this abuse and illegal activity should this Court request them.

RELIEF REQUESTED

Defendant is not an attorney and files this without assistance of counsel and requests this Court construe the language herein liberally so as to protect the interests of the Defendant and achieve the purposes of the Bankruptcy Code

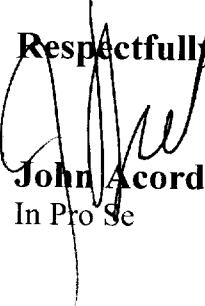

19. Defendant requests that Plaintiff's Motion for Entry of a Default Judgment be Dismissed with prejudice for all the reasons set forth herein, and, further, in the interests of justice.

20. Defendant further requests that this Court require the Plaintiff, its attorneys, and all those acting in concert with the Plaintiff to refrain from further actions that may interfere with the duties of the Defendant to assist in the proper reorganization of the Debtor, and

21. Require by order of this court that the Plaintiff immediately cease all violations of the Consent Injunction attached hereto as Exhibit 7.

22. That Plaintiff's attorney, Margaret McClure be properly sanctioned as set forth above.

Respectfully submitted,

John Acord

ANSWER

COMES NOW, John Acord, Defendant, and files this Answer.

Defendant Denies all allegations contained within the complaint within the aforesaid

Complaint, and further avers:

1. Denies all material allegations contained therein or otherwise stands on the
2. amended schedules submitted to this court as true and correct to the best of his
3. knowledge.

4. Defendant relied upon the advice of competent and certified counsel in preparing
5. all schedules and declarations in this case and avers they are true and correct to
6. the best of his knowledge and advice of counsel.
7. The Plaintiff knew or should have known that all issues raised herein are issues
8. that can only be raised by the Debtor, who operates under the protection of a court
9. appointed trustee
10. That no proper summons as set for in the filings of the court was ever served upon
11. the Defendant
12. That proper time for service has lapsed and that the complaint should be
13. dismissed for lack of service.
14. Plaintiff knows or should have known that Defendant's personal attorney is
15. Patrick Hoskins Esq., yet made no attempt to contact Mr. Hoskins to effect proper
16. service and leave to reply to the complaint
17. Defendant files this reply after discovering to his dismay from the Trustee that the
18. Plaintiff intended to file a motion for default in this case, maintaining that proper
19. service had been made on the Defendant.
20. That Plaintiff's attorney, Margaret McClure, was present when this Defendant
21. appeared before this court on at least 3 separate occasions and made no attempt to
22. properly serve this defendant with a copy of the complaint and status order.
23. Defendant did discuss the complaint with the former attorney for the Debtor and
24. was informed at that time that no proper summons had been issued, that the case
25. would be held in "abatement," and no reply was necessary. Afterwards, the same
26. attorney told Defendant that the court appointed trustee would handle the matter

27. as the issues raised by the plaintiff were under the Trustee's jurisdiction and not
28. issues that could properly raised by the plaintiff.

Request For Jury Trial

The Defendant demand a jury trial on the allegations contained in this complaint and requests that the complaint, if not dismissed by the Court, be moved to the District Court of proper jurisdiction

The Defendant further requests this court to construe the language of this Answer liberally. The Defendant is not an attorney, has not consulted with an attorney on this reply, and needs time to retain an attorney should the court allow the case to proceed.

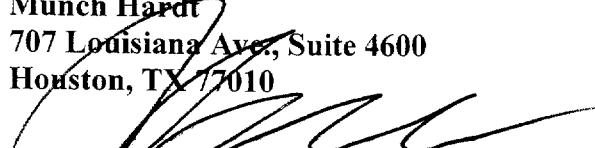

The Defendant asks this court to enter a new scheduling order based upon service from

this date and allow Defendant sufficient time to retain competent counsel

Respectfully submitted.

ANSWER

COMES NOW, Marcella Ortega, Defendant, and files this Answer.

Defendant Denies all allegations contained within the complaint within the aforesaid Complaint, and further avers:

1. Denies all material allegations contained therein or otherwise stands on the
2. amended schedules submitted to this court as true and correct to the best of his
3. knowledge.

4. Defendant relied upon the advice of competent and certified counsel in preparing
5. all schedules and declarations In this case and avers they are true and correct to
6. the best of his knowledge and advice of counsel.
7. The Plaintiff knew or should have known that all issues raised herein are issues
8. that can only be raised by the Debtor, who operates under the protection of a court
9. appointed trustee
10. That no proper summons as set for in the filings of the court was ever served upon
11. the Defendant
12. That proper time for service has lapsed and that the complaint should be
13. dismissed for lack of service.
14. Plaintiff knows or should have known that Defendant's personal attorney is
15. Patrick Hoskins Esq., yet made no attempt to contact Mr. Hoskins to effect proper
16. service and leave to reply to the complaint
17. Defendant files this reply after discovering to his dismay from the Trustee that
the
18. Plaintiff intended to file a motion for default in this case, maintaining that proper
19. service had been made on the Defendant.
20. That Plaintiff's attorney, Margaret McClure, was present when this Defendant
21. appeared before this court on at least 3 separate occasions and made no attempt to
22. properly serve this defendant with a copy of the complaint and status order.
23. Defendant did discuss the complaint with the former attorney for the Debtor and
24. was informed at that time that no proper summons had been issued, that the case
25. would be held in "abatement," and no reply was necessary. Afterwards, the same
26. attorney told Defendant that the court appointed trustee would handle the matter

27. as the issues raised by the plaintiff were under the Trustee's jurisdiction and not
28. issues that could properly be raised by the plaintiff.

Request For Jury Trial

The Defendant demand a jury trial on the allegations contained in this complaint and requests that the complaint, if not dismissed by the Court, be moved to the District Court of proper jurisdiction

The Defendant further requests this court to construe the language of this Answer liberally. The Defendant is not an attorney, has not consulted with an attorney on this reply, and needs time to retain an attorney should the court allow the case to proceed.

The Defendant asks this court to enter a new scheduling order based upon service from

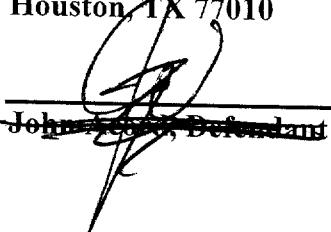

this date and allow Defendant sufficient time to retain competent counsel

Respectfully submitted,

Marcella Ortega
In Pro Se

CONSENT INJUNCTION

By agreement of the parties, as expressed on the record at the May 19, 2004 Hearing held on Plaintiff's Motion To Enforce This Court's Rulings On March 22, 2004, The Consent Injunction Order Of March 25, 2004, And The Preliminary Injunction Order Of March 25, 2004, And For An Order To Show Cause Why Defendant Should Not Be Held In Contempt For Violating This Court's Decrees, And For Expenses, Including Attorneys' Fees, it is, this day of May, 2004, by the United States District Court for the District of Maryland,

ORDERED, that Pursuant to Fed. R. Civ. P. 65(d), Defendants, their officers, agents, servants, employees, members, and those acting in concert or participation with them who receive notice of this Injunction, including but not limited to Young Again Nutrition, L.L.C.,

(collectively "Defendants"), are hereby PERMANENTLY ENJOINED and RESTRAINED, both jointly and severally, from use of the following trademarks: Fat Absorb®, Better Immunity™, Better Prostate™, Skin Cure®, The Osteoporosis Answer®, Vein Free®, Arthritis Arsenal®, Arthritis Free™, Better Cholesterol®, German Zyme™, Miracle Cream™, Total Minerals™, Total Vitamins™, the Estrogen Alternative™, or any other names, terms or marks which so resemble any of the above marks as to be likely to cause confusion, and it is

FURTHER ORDERED, that the Defendants are hereby PERMANENTLY ENJOINED and RESTRAINED, both jointly and severally, from marketing, selling, distributing, advertising, brokering, transferring, publishing, or giving away for free the following books (or any excerpts there from): Lower Cholesterol Without Drugs; What Is Beta Glucan; Zen Macrobiotics For Americans; The Natural Prostate Cure; Natural Arthritis Relief; No More Horse Estrogen; and The Mineral You Need; provided however, that the Defendants may sell or give away with purchase of product any of these books that remain in inventory at the time of execution of this Order, and it is

FURTHER ORDERED, that the Defendants are hereby PERMANENTLY ENJOINED and RESTRAINED, both jointly and severally, from use or publication of any articles or excerpts of articles authored by Roger Mason, including articles in archives, provided however, that the Defendants shall have 60 days from execution of this Order to remove all such articles and excerpts from articles from all websites owned or controlled by the Defendants, and it is

FURTHER ORDERED, that the Defendants are hereby PERMANENTLY ENJOINED and RESTRAINED, both jointly and severally, from use or publication of the name Roger Mason, provided however, that the Defendants shall have 60 days from execution of this Order to remove all references to the name from websites owned or controlled by the Defendants, and it is

FURTHER ORDERED, that all parties to this case, including their respective officers, agents, servants, employees, and those acting in concert or participation with them, are PERMANENTLY ENJOINED and RESTRAINED from making any disparaging or defamatory remarks about one another or their respective businesses to any third parties unless protected or privileged pursuant to legal proceedings, and it is

FURTHER ORDERED, that Plaintiff, its officers, agents, servants, and employees, including Roger Mason and Ivey Mason, are PERMANENTLY ENJOINED and RESTRAINED from interfering in any way with the business of Defendants including but not limited to using Defendants' customer lists or other trade secret information of Defendants, provided however, that nothing in this paragraph shall be construed to limit the Plaintiff from pursuing its claims against the Defendants in the above captioned case or any other legal proceeding in another jurisdiction, or taking any lawful action necessary to protect Plaintiff's rights, and it is

FURTHER ORDERED, that the Defendants shall remove within one week of the execution of this Order all references to the trademarks and copyrighted books identified above from all websites owned or controlled by the Defendants, including the following websites:

dear shirley,
YAN sold you junk at high prices. junk like resveratrol, lycopene, hoodia and a whole long list. we are trying to get all of them put in jail.
please go to www.youngagain.org and read The Supplements You Need.
please also read No More Horse Estrogen!
please look at our products at www.youngagain.com (we took this site over this week). we only sell proven products at low prices.
my best to you,

roger

don't worry, the credit card company is well aware of the fraud at YAN as it went on for months. jane batts king is going to be charged with this. john "livingston" is really john acord a two time ex-con on his way back to jail for bankruptcy fraud.

Roger, thank you so much for replying back to me. I cannot call my credit card company until Monday to tell them I have been defrauded. I have been a customer of Young Again Nutrients for 2-3 years and I am so disappointed. I really loved the products.

Thank you for taking the time to let me know what is happening.

Much appreciated,

Re: Livingston, John

Dear Mr. Brown,

In reference to your inquiry about John Livingston in Magnolia, TX we found the following:

He was born John Patrick Acord on 1/20/43 in Los Angeles, CA. His mother is Marcella Boyle (now Ortega) born 10/31/23 also in Los Angeles.

He has no law degree, nor did he graduate from any college, university, or trade school. He did attend one semester of college in Washington, DC. Mr. Acord has almost no known job history whatsoever in a search of Social Security Records.

He was involved with a Nazi paramilitary group in the late 1960s called "Liberty Lobby". They published the magazine "Attack!". He was field director under Willis Carto. Mr. Acord misappropriated about $50,000 in donations for which he was removed from his post, but no criminal charges were filed.

He has been repeatedly cited, fined, and investigated by the SEC in the 1970s and 1980s. If you want detailed reports of these they are available.

In 1985 he was sentenced to ten years in federal prison for securities, wire, and mail fraud counts. This was in the Southern District of Nevada. He remained on parole after release until 1995.

In 1996 he was sentenced to five years in federal prison for bankruptcy, wire, and mail fraud counts. This was in the Northern District of Texas. He was on supervised release until 2001. His mother Marcella, his sister Susan Hall, his brother Sean, and his daughter-in-law Kimberly Caldwell were all involved as well as Douglass Kennett.

Only Acord and Kennett went to prison.

Currently Mr. Acord is being investigated by the FBI, IRS, and Texas Bankruptcy Court in Houston. He is also involved in federal civil suits in Salt Lake City, Utah and Greenbelt, Maryland.

If you need any more information please contact us.

Sincerely,

Jonathan Davis, Investigator

Mr. Aronson,

It seems everyone who deals with John gets cheated out of what he owes them. If he owes you money you need to retain an attorney immediately.

"Aronson" is usually a name of Jewish heritage. John is the most virulent anti-Semite I've ever met. He was second in command of the biggest neo-Nazi organization in the country. He brags about having a half million dollar collection of Nazi paraphernalia.
